AUGUST 8, 2010 – NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dear fellow members of St. Denis and Our Lady of the Wayside,

In the Gospel reading Jesus says, “Do not be afraid any longer, little flock...sell your belongings and give alms.” Jesus gave many warnings about the seductions of wealth. There is nothing wrong in acquiring wealth. But, what can make it bad is greed. And in that process we can forget that half the world is hungry. We may also fail to notice that we are also hungry because our hearts are empty. Jesus says, “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” If I treat money as my treasure then there will be nothing in my heart except money.

Msgr. Jose Rodriguez served the Archdiocese of San Francisco as a priest for over forty years. Now that he has retired he decided to take some vacation and so has gone back to his home town in Spain to spend some time with his family and relatives. I wish him a wonderful vacation and hope that he has a very restful and relaxing time in Spain. When Msgr. Jose is away on his vacation we will continue to have just one weekday Mass at OLW – TUESDAYS at 7:30 am.

I would like to invite you to the outdoor Mass and Barbeque at St. Denis Memorial Garden on August 28th, Saturday, from 5:30 pm. Reservation forms and envelopes are available at the entrance of the Church.

Our Parish Picnic and outdoor Mass under the redwood trees will be on Sunday, September 12, at 9:30 am, at Our Lady of the Wayside Church. Everyone is welcome!

Yours Sincerely,
Fr. Jose Shaji, Pastor

There will be a MEMORIAL MASS for Ralph Oswald, followed by a reception on August 21st Saturday at 11:00 am at St. Denis.
